Students who obtain C-, D+ and D in all courses except language courses will be allowed to resit the courses. The maximum grade a student can obtain in a resit is C. The fee for resitting exam is RM200.00 per course. The deadline for submitting the Resit Registration Forms is within 1 week after the commencement of the semester. A late processing fee of RM50.00 will be imposed on students who submit the Resit Forms after the deadline. (Last modified on 6 January 2017)

1.6 Minimum/Maximum Credit Units Allowed for Registration

The minimum and maximum credit units that students can take per long semester (regardless of code classification, repeat, or resit courses) are 12 and 20 respectively and 3 and 10 respectively per short semester. The Head of School has the prerogative to allow a student to register a total number of credit units fewer than the minimum units if the student has fulfilled the minimum requirements for graduation or under special circumstances.

All courses within a programme of study will contribute to the total credit units required for graduation.

1.7 Exemptions/Credit Transfer

Students who possess additional qualifications may apply for exemptions from taking certain courses in writing when they enrol in the first semester. Application for exemptions must be accompanied by relevant documents such as syllabus, course outline, notes, etc. The deadline to file for exemptions is within 2 weeks (long semester)/ 1 week (short semester) after the commencement of the first semester. The Head of School has the sole discretion whether or not to grant the exemptions. The decision of the Head of School is final and neither correspondence nor appeal will be entertained.

1.8 Change of Programme/Option

Accepted applicants who wish to apply for a change of programme/option must first register as students of the College in the programme they have been offered. The closing date for submission of the completed application form for change of programme/option is 2 weeks (long semester) / 1 week (short semester) after the commencement of the semester. Approval for the change of programme/option is at the discretion of the Head of Schools concerned.

1.9 Classification of Courses

Students are allowed to register for courses specified by their respective Schools provided that they fulfil the necessary prerequisites, if any.

Courses are coded as follows:

Classification Code	Type of Course
C	Core Course
R	Core-required Course
K	College Course
E	Elective
T	Industrial Training

Note: Industrial Training is Core (C) for students from the School of Communication.

1.10 Time Schedule and Courses Offered

The time schedule and list of courses offered will be made available to the students online by the respective Schools before registration begins. Students are not allowed to register for courses if there is a clash in lecture or tutorial hours.

Every effort will be made by the College to offer courses required for various programmes. However, student enrolment and School resources may affect course availability. In addition, some courses are offered only once a year or only upon sufficient demand as determined by the respective Head of School. Students are advised to adhere to the study plan of the programme. Otherwise, the College cannot guarantee that a student can complete all courses in order to graduate on schedule.

2. Student Attendance

Attendance in lectures, tutorials, laboratory and practical sessions will be recorded by the lecturers. A warning letter shall be issued to a student who is absent for four (4) hours of lectures, tutorials, laboratory, or practical sessions without valid reasons. If the student continues to miss another four (4) hours of lectures, tutorials, laboratory, or practical sessions, without valid reasons, a second warning letter will be issued. A final warning letter will be issued if he/she is absent for four (4) more hours.

A student who is present for less than 80% of the sessions of a course will be barred from taking the examination of that course unless the Examination Board is satisfied with the reasons for his/her absence and supported by valid documents. A student who is barred from the examination shall be deemed to have failed the course.

For 100% coursework-based courses, failure to meet the attendance requirement alone will result in failing the course.

3. Academic Misconduct

3.1 Definition

3.1.1 Plagiarism

All sources used in the preparation of assignment or projects must be cited and duly acknowledged in the List of References (LOR) or a bibliography at the end of the assignments. Failure to cite sources as they are used is regarded as plagiarism, which is one form of cheating.

3.1.2 Collusion

Students are encouraged to form groups to share ideas and assist one another in the development of assignments and projects. However, it is not acceptable for members of the group to submit identical answers to an individual assignment or project, by simply copying the work done as a group. The lecturer is entitled to consider identical layout, identical mistakes, identical argument, and identical presentation to be prima facie evidence of collusion.

3.1.3 Fabrication

Fabrication is defined as intentional and unauthorized falsifying or altering of information. Fabrication includes falsifying data and signatures on college or personal documents, etc.

3.2 Consequences

Where there is evidence that a student has plagiarized sources or other forms of cheating, one of the following actions may be taken by the lecturer in charge of the course:

- The students may fail the course.
- The students may fail the assignment.
- The lecturer may set a make-up assignment.
- The students may be allowed to redo the assignment.

Fabrication may result in disciplinary action on a student be taken.

4. Examination and Evaluation System

The majority of the courses at Han Chiang College comprise coursework and examination components. Students taking such courses must fulfill the coursework requirements (see Section 4.1) before they are allowed to sit for the examination. The percentage of coursework and examination components approved by the Examination Board of the College may vary from course to course. The breakdown of the coursework and examination is indicated in the course outline.

4.1 Coursework Requirements

Coursework in the form of assignments, progress tests, quizzes, practicals, projects, tutorial participation, etc. shall contribute to the overall percentage of the marks depending on the specification of the particular course. In addition, students must have fulfilled satisfactory attendance (Refer to Student Attendance Section), have completed all coursework and settled all fees in order to sit for the examination. Failure to submit any piece of assessment and fulfill coursework requirements will result in the student being barred from the examination and be awarded an F grade.

4.2 Examination Requirements

Students will take the examination in the courses they have registered at the end of each semester. All fees must be settled and attendance requirements for lectures, tutorials, and practicals as well as other course requirements must be fulfilled before students are allowed to sit for the examination.

Students should check the examination timetable and venue online or through the college notice board. If there is a clash in timetable, the student affected must notify the Registry immediately. No changes can be made to the timetable once the final examination timetable is released.

5. Examination Regulations

The following examination regulations apply to all candidates sitting for the examination of all courses. Failure to observe the examination regulations may result in failing the course(s).

5.1 Exam Slips

Exam slips will be issued to candidates who have paid their course fee in full and have completed their teaching survey forms 2 weeks before the commencement of the examination. The deadline for collection is 2 working days before the commencement of the examination. A fine of RM50.00 will be imposed on candidates who do not collect the exam slips within the stipulated time.

5.2 Verification of Examination Documents

Candidates must produce their Exam Slips and Student Cards before entering the examination hall. Candidates who fail to produce either of these documents will be allowed to sit for the examination but have to pay a fine of RM50.00 per course to the Bursary after the examination. The College reserves the right to withhold the results of the candidates who fail to pay the fine.

5.3 Items Allowed in the Examination Hall

Candidates are only allowed to bring their stationery for writing purposes such as pens, pencils, rulers, and correction fluid into the examination hall. All pencil cases / boxes, are strictly prohibited in the examination hall. Mobile phones, pagers, PDA and other electronic means of communication and storage must be turned off.

Non-programmable calculators are allowed for certain courses on condition that such instruction is clearly stated on the Cover Page of the examination papers.

5.4 Examination Materials

Candidates are not allowed to remove any examination materials such as examination papers, answer sheets, writing paper, etc. from the examination hall.

5.5 Entry into and Exit from the Examination Hall

Candidates are permitted into an examination up to 45 minutes after the commencement of an examination with the following penalties:

(Calculation: Maximum marks scorable X final examination assessment percentage)

DURATION	PENALTY
a) Less than or equal to 15 minutes	No penalty
b) More than 15 minutes and up to 30 minutes	10% penalty on the paper sat (Maximum marks scorable = 90%)
c) More than 30 minutes and up to 45 minutes	20% penalty on the paper sat (Maximum marks scorable = 80%)
d) 46 minutes until expiration of half of the time allotted for the examination ( Quarantine Period ). Note: Candidates in this category will only be permitted to enter the examination at the discretion of the Chief Invigilator. Candidates must sit the examination at the “quarantine area” which will be designated accordingly.	20% penalty on the paper sat (Maximum marks scorable = 80%)

Candidates who turn up late for their examinations and who are permitted to continue the examination in the venue do not get any extra time.

Candidates may not leave the examination hall during the examination. However, a student who desires to leave the hall temporarily must obtain prior permission and be accompanied by an invigilator.

Candidates will not be allowed to leave the hall in the last fifteen (15) minutes of an examination.

5.6 Conduct and Attire in the Examination Hall

- 5.6.1 Candidates are not allowed to communicate with each other once they enter the examination hall.
- 5.6.2 Candidates must sit at the prearranged designated places.
- 5.6.3 Candidates should check that they have the correct question paper for the examination they are sitting.
- 5.6.4 Candidates must wait for the instruction from the Chief Invigilator before they start writing the answers.
- 5.6.5 Should a candidate desire to communicate with a supervisor or invigilator, he/she should raise his/her hand.
- 5.6.6 Candidates must wear attire suitable for examination purposes. Shorts, singlets, slippers and attire that is revealing are not allowed in the examination hall. Offenders may be barred from entering the examination hall and will be fined RM50.00.

5.7 Cheating

Students who are caught cheating during an examination are deemed to have failed the entire paper. Students found repeating the offence will be suspended for one (1) semester and will deem to have failed the entire examination of that semester. A student found guilty of cheating for two (2) times or more may be expelled from the College.

5.8 Absenteeism during the Examination

If a candidate is unable to be present at an examination, he/she will have to inform the Registry in writing within 24 hours of the examination day, justifying his/her absence and documentary evidence in support of his/her explanation must be attached. The Examination Board reserves the right to reject reasons for being absent which are deemed unacceptable.

5.9 Absent With Permission

Candidates will be considered absent with permission from the examination if they produce any of the following documents: Medical certificate and Medical Certificate Form (Han Chiang College) duly completed by the medical practitioner of a government clinic or hospital to be submitted to the College within 24 hours for outpatient treatment and within 7 working days for hospitalization cases. A letter and death certificate of parents or siblings to be submitted to the College within 72 hours. Candidates who are absent with permission are allowed to carry forward their coursework marks to the following semester when the course is offered and to sit for the examination only. Special arrangements will be made for final semester students in such cases.

5.10 Absent Without Permission

Candidates will be deemed to have failed the entire course if they are absent without permission.

6. Results, Grading System and Student's Academic Status

Official examination results will be released before the beginning of the next semester. Students may check their results in one of the following ways:

By logging on to the College website

The College will notify students to collect their result slips once they are ready. Students are encouraged to check the College's Notice Board/website for such announcements.

6.1 Appeal for Review of Examination Results

Students who are dissatisfied with their results may appeal for a review. Appeal for review of examination results must be made in writing and must reach the Registry not later than one (1) week after the official release of results. A fee of RM100.00 per course will be charged. The fee shall be refunded if the application is successful.

6.2 Grading System

The grading of student performance is based on the Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) System. The Grades and Point are as follows:

Marks	Grade	Point
80-100	A	4.00
75-79	A-	3.67
